

AUTOAIR GLOUCESTER LTD

DATA PRIVACY NOTICE

We value your privacy and want you to be clear about the data we collect and store, how we use this and the rights you have to control that information.

We have created a Data Privacy Policy to reflect changes introduced by the new General Data Protection Regulations (GDPR) which comes into force from 25th May 2018. The changes in law will provide you with greater transparency and control over your personal data.

What data is being collected?

For you to enter into an agreement with AUTOAIR GLOUCESTER LTD, we will collect and store your personal data. The use and storing of this personal data is a contractual requirement and is necessary by AUTOAIR GLOUCESTER LTD in order to administer your account and to provide the products and service from us.

When you contact AUTOAIR GLOUCESTER LTD to engage in our services, by providing us with your personal data you are giving your consent for AUTOAIR GLOUCESTER LTD to collect and store this data. Failure to give consent may mean we will be unable to execute the contract and would result in us not being able to provide you a service.

When engaging AUTOAIR GLOUCESTER LTD

We will require the following information to enable an account to be opened.

- Title
- First name (s) surname or company name
- Address(street name, street number, postal code, city and county
- Email address
- Telephone and mobile number
- Fax number

How long will the data be stored?

Where possible AUTOAIR GLOUCESTER LTD will erase any personal data that is deemed no longer necessary for the purpose for which it is collected or otherwise processed, or if you have withdrawn consent for its processing and retention.

As currently practiced if you have a contract or intend to enter into a contract with AUTOAIR GLOUCESTER LTD, we will store the data for a period of six years for compliance with our general legal obligations and for the exercise or defence of any legal claim.

Under the GDPR, you have the right to block or request the deletion or removal of personal data to prevent further processing. This right to erasure is also known as the 'right to be forgotten'. Specific circumstances in which you can request the deletion or removal of personal data includes:

- Where personal data is no longer necessary for the purpose for which it is collected or otherwise processed
- Where you withdraw consent
- When you object to the processing and there is no overriding legitimate interest to continue the process
- Where the personal data was unlawfully processed
- Where the personal data has to be erased to comply with legal obligations
- In case a deletion is not possible due to legal, statutory or contractual retention periods, or if it requires disproportionate effort or prejudices your legitimate interests, the data will be blocked or deleted.

Marketing

Unless you have told us not to we may send you marketing information relating to products that we think are of interest and relevance to you. If at any point you change your mind and no longer want to receive any marketing please contact us on 01452 308628.

Telephone recordings

All calls received are recorded for quality and training purposes. Where confidential information is given ie. credit cards and bank details recording is suspended.
